Mr. Joseph N. Maccia, Principal

My congratulations to you, the graduating class of 2004. You are on the threshold of a new beginning which contains a multitude of opportunities and perhaps an equal number of pitfalls. Rely on the keenness of your senses, the training of your parents and teachers, and your own good judgement. Remember that for every freedom there is an equivalent responsibility. Face these urgent responsibilities with dedication and determination.

Each positive achievement in your life strengthens your character. Your wisdom serves to increase self pride. Respect of self and others becomes obvious to all those with whom you communicate. Traveling through life with the proper values makes your attainment of projected goals inevitable.

So it is with pride, not sadness, that I bid farewell to the class of 2004, for I know your dedication to excellence and your commitment to principles of freedom with responsibility will serve you, your community and your nation. Good luck, and may each of you find the success you seek.

Sincerely,
Joseph N. Maccia, Principal

Ann Street Goodbye

(1) We came here...now we're going,
Schools are never quite the same,
We'll miss you... dear old Ann Street,
Don't feel bad you're not to blame.

Chorus:

So Ann Street good-bye
And we'll try not to cry
All our mem'ries of you will live on
We will be blue...'cause we're leaving you
Soon our hearts will be leaving you behind.
Linger a-while, and we'll go with a smile,
Like a friend who just happens to call,
For the last time, we will say good-bye

(2) We know now we must go, now,
Though our hearts plead us to stay,
High school is our to-mor-row,
You belong to yes-ter-day...

Farewell Address

Now that our years at Ann Street have come to an end, we look back on many memories. We remember the people, the good, the bad times, and the many new experiences that all become a part of us. Many of these memories will be forgotten, but the lessons we have learned here will enable us to become someone who is always willing to give, as well as to receive.

There are many difficult years ahead of us, and they will not be easy. Life is full of disappointments and failures as well as good times and accomplishments. But, if we have perseverance and confidence in ourselves, we will be able to overcome any barrier that stands in the way of our success. Our years at Ann Street School have given us the ability to achieve this goal.

So, as we leave you, Ann Street, we say good-bye, with mixed emotions of happiness and sorrow. We thank you for sending us out into the world as better people.

Matthew:

There are no words to describe the joy you've brought to our family. You've truly lived up to your name and have indeed been a "gift from God." From the day you were born, your charming ways and charismatic personality have served you well – whether in the stroller, on a playground or in the classroom. Even when you've been mischievous, all you need to do is flash that smile and all is forgiven! The next four years will be your chance to shine. Enjoy them, but remember to keep focused on your goals and strive to do and be your best!

Joey,

Watching you grow up and become a young man through the years has been an amazing part of my life. We have been through a lot together and all along you have been the wind beneath my wings. You make every day a memory and we have a lot more memories to make. The times ahead of us are only going to get better and better, I can promise you that. You have been the center of my life, my world, from the very day you were born, and you will always be. Life has been a blessing having you as my son and I love you more than you can ever imagine. You will always be my Life, my Love, my Friend, my Son. Never forget, I'll like you for always, But I'll love you forever. Congratulations and the Best in everything you set out to accomplish. I'm here for you always my #1 Little Man.

Love,
Mommy & Fred

Joey,

I am so happy that you are my son.

I know that we have missed a lot of years together, but believe me it is never too late. I see so much of me in you and I hope we can become even closer over the years. We have our whole lives ahead of us and I am looking forward to our future together. Remember, I will always be here for you no matter what happens in your life. I love you with all my heart. Congratulations and Best of Luck in the future.

Love,

Daddy, Rosanne, Joseph & Anthony

Congratulations Kenny

We, your family want you to know how proud we are of you.
 You have always been a great brother and son.
 We've seen you grow up into this bright young man.
 We're all proud of you today and always!
 So keep your head up and we'll be there every step of the way.

Graduation is a time
For feeling very proud,
For thinking lots of lovely thoughts,
And saying them out loud.

It's a time for feeling love
About to overflow,
And just before it leaps its banks
To let the loved one know.

And we are very proud of you
For being who you are,
For making something of yourself,
For making it this far.

We're proud because we're a part
Of everything you do.
This is the time to say how much
We love you.

Joey .

Our son, whom we adore... with big brown eyes smiling as you come through the door.

You've grown up so very fast....

You're now a teenager your childhood years are past.

No matter where your life leads you... Promise us this-that to your heart you'll remain true.

Don't ever stop caring about those around you... keep sharing your hopes, your dreams they are part of who you are- no matter old or new.

Never lose faith in yourself ... and when life gets hard...

just do what you can. If something knocks you down don't stay there long...

Get right back up and smile dust yourself off and keep going on.

We can only give you one thing,

it's bigger than the sky above...

and that is our wonderful blessing and undying love
Congratulations Joey!!! We Love You... Love Mom, Dad & Crystal

Best Friends Forever

bEsT fRIEnDs 4eVa

Although it's quite a statement
Well, it happens to be true
The best friend I have ever had
I'm glad to say, is you.
You're there if I should need you
And you never turn away
I know I can depend on you
At any time of day.

We've had our ups and downs
As nearly everybody does
But problems never last for long
With special friends like us.
Some people have so many friends
With whom they spend their time
But no-one has a best friend
Who's as wonderful as mine.
So thanks for always being there
Your friendship's strong and true
And I just want to let you know
I'm always there for you!

~BEST FRIENDS ~

As we walk our path of life,
We meet people everyday.
Most are simply met by chance.
But, some are sent our way.

These become special friends
Whose bond we can't explain;
The ones who understand us
And share our joy and pain.

Their love contains no boundaries.
So, even when we are apart.
Their presence enhances us
With a warmth felt in the heart.

This love becomes a passageway,
When even the miles disappear.
And so, these friends, God sends our way,
Remain forever

Friends for ever

The first time we met we weren't friends. As the year progressed we grew a bond. As the days went on, the bond grew strong. Our bond is like a rock that cannot be broken. Till this day we remain the same.

Terrorism was a constant threat worldwide. Bombings occurred in several Muslim nations with western ties. Flights into the U.S. were periodically canceled. Equipment was installed at airports to conduct instant background checks on visitors to the U.S.

Plans are in place for new construction on the site of the World Trade Center, which was destroyed on 9/11. If built, the Freedom Tower will reach 1,776 feet and become the tallest building in the world.

Concerns remained about the development of nuclear weapons by Iran and North Korea. However, Libya agreed to dismantle its nuclear program.

In January, a dangerous cold spell gripped the Northeast. The high demand for electricity led utility companies to warn residents of possible rolling blackouts.

A European heat wave killed more than 14,000 people in late summer. As illness and deaths increased, a crisis developed at French hospitals and funeral homes. French citizens were angered by the slow government response.

We found him! After eight months of searching, soldiers of the U.S. Army's 4th Infantry Division captured Saddam Hussein, former Iraqi dictator. Meanwhile, fighting continued between insurgents and coalition forces as it had since the fall of Iraq in April 2003.

A late December earthquake killed at least 25,000 people in Bam, Iran. Aid teams from 16 countries went to help, including volunteers from the U.S., which was not on friendly terms with Iran.

A blackout Aug. 14 left people from Maine to Michigan in the dark. People were trapped in elevators and on subways and traffic snarled, yet this hotel clerk continued to work.

The flu season arrived earlier and stronger than usual, leading to packed emergency rooms, closed schools and the deaths of some children.

Arnold Schwarzenegger, the Austrian-born body-builder and star of the The Terminator, Terminator 2 Judgement Day and other action movies, unseated unpopular Gov. Gray Davis during an October recall election.

Former Vermont Gov. Howard Dean, left, became the first presidential candidate ever to use the internet as a fund-raising venue, including a blog to keep in touch with voters.

John Allen Muhammad and Lee Boyd Malvo were found guilty in the Washington, D.C. sniper shootings. Meanwhile, at least a dozen shootings similar to those near Washington occurred near Columbus, Ohio.

The nation followed the case of Scott Peterson, who was to be tried in the deaths of his wife, Lacy, and their unborn son. Lacy's disappearance Dec. 24, 2002, sparked a massive search in the Modesto, Calif., area. Both bodies washed up on shore in April 2003.

A magnitude-6.5 earthquake was felt in December from San Francisco to Los Angeles, killing three people and destroying historic buildings in Paso Robles, including the wooden cupola that housed the old two-story clock tower.

Celebrations in Vatican City in October marked the 25th anniversary of the papacy of Pope John Paul II. During the occasion, the 83-year-old pope beatified Mother Teresa, the nun who devoted most of her life to caring for the sick and destitute in Calcutta.

Nations made preparations in case the virus SARS (Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome) decided to return this winter. SARS, a flu-like illness, began in early 2003 in Asia, where many people wear face masks for protection.

An improving economy in late 2003 sparked hope for the nearly nine million unemployed Americans. President George W. Bush continued to offer reassurance that the economy was picking up, such as during his visit to a Maryland Home Depot store.

More than 20 people died, at least 1,100 people lost their homes and thousands were evacuated as California wildfires roared from the Simi Valley south to San Diego in the fall. Schools closed and airports were shut down.

Signs of the Times

Taking a cue from many states, President George W. Bush signed into law a federal "do not call" list. People can request to be on the list and avoid calls from many telemarketers.

Get your rest before you get behind the wheel in New Jersey. The state has become the first to have a law against drowsy driving. Under the law, a driver who causes a fatal crash can be charged with vehicular homicide if there is evidence the driver was sleepy.

A homesick man thought it would be cheaper to fly himself home as cargo, but officials said he paid about the same as a first-class ticket. Charles McKinley shipped himself in a crate from New York to his parents' home in Dallas in a 15-hour journey that had officials concerned about the lack of security.

Trends

Flash mobs were a phenomenon that developed from cell phone text messaging. With one text message, you could tell everyone you know to meet at the same place at the same time—say, 2 p.m. Saturday on Main Street—and do something attention-getting—like a Tarzan yell for 30 seconds—then leave.

Style trends included monogrammed clothing; chandelier earrings; and trucker hats, like those worn by actor Ashton Kutcher; and hoodies.

Some slang words gained status. McJob—a low-paying job requiring little skill—entered the newest Merriam-Webster Collegiate Dictionary, angering McDonald's officials. The newest Oxford Dictionary of English included muggle, bootylicious, boy bands and girl bands.

One phone number for life? You can keep your cell phone number when changing companies, and make your home and cell number the same. Camera phones also were popular, but some countries banned them over invasion of privacy concerns.

Soda wars bubbled up in schools amid complaints that soft drinks are unhealthy for children. Some districts removed pop machines while others reduced the hours of availability. The decision about what to do was not easy, as some districts needed the revenue from the machines.

Studies showed that smoking among high school students had dropped and remained about the same for middle school students. However, tanning beds remain popular with teens despite the risk of skin cancer.

So what is pizza? The U.S. Department of Agriculture says pizza does not need crust, sauce or cheese to be labeled as pizza for sale in grocery stores. USDA also said "pizza with meat" products only have to have 2 to 3 percent meat instead of 12 to 15 percent.
